

The Griff Network

Materials that create solutions.

General Production Worker

Immediate need for team-oriented, highly motivated individuals. Must possess a strong work ethic and take pride and ownership in work. The ideal candidate must be dependable and demonstrate a stable work history, along with a strong motivation to learn and succeed. Candidates searching for a long-term commitment with growth potential are encouraged to apply. Experience in a manufacturing environment is a must.

Responsibilities Include:

- Start up, set up, operate, and tend machine to meet customer specifications and dimensions according to work orders and / or blueprints.
- Move controls to activate and adjust for converting process.
- Observe machine operations to detect any defective material or any machine malfunctions.
- Responsible for detailed completion of work orders and production reports.
- Help with packaging and labeling products.
- Performs other duties and assignments as directed by management.

Qualifications:

- Mathematical aptitude
- Ability to read measuring devices such as ruler, caliper, dial indicator, micrometer and scale
- Manual dexterity and ability to use all hand tools in order to set up and operate equipment
- Ability to lift and carry objects.

We offer a Competitive Wage, Health, Dental, and Disability Benefits, along with a 401k Matching Program.

If you are interested please contact Human Resources at 215-428- 1075 x124 or hr@paperandfilm.com